

Dear traveler, HEALTH COMES FIRST

The Peruvian Government has taken the following measures to fight COVID-19:

- Travelers entering the country must fill out a sworn statement (link) and also provide the following before boarding the plane: a negative PCR test issued up to 72 hours before boarding or a negative antigen test issued up to 24 hours before boarding.
- The entry of non-resident passengers from South Africa, Brazil and / or India or anyone who have made a stopover in said countries in the last 14 days is suspended until August 22.
- Quarantine is canceled for travelers entering the country with the exception of Peruvians and foreigners residing from South Africa, Brazil and / or India or anyone who have made a stopover in those countries, who must carry out a mandatory quarantine at their home, accommodation or other temporary isolation center for 14 days from arrival in Peru.
- The use of a face shield is no longer required to board national or international flights.
- Moderate alert level: Circulation hours are from 04:00 to 00:00.
- High alert level: Circulation hours are from 04:00 to 00:00.
- Very High alert level: Circulation hours are from 04:00 to 22:00 with vehicle restriction on Sundays.

MODERATE ALERT LEVEL	HIGH ALERT LEVEL	VERY HIGH ALERT LEVEL
Cajamarca Huancavelica Huanuco La Libertad Lambayeque Lima (regions) Madre de Dios Pasco Piura Tumbes	Amazonas Ancash Apurimac Ayacucho Cusco Ica Junin Province of Lima (Metropolitan Lima) Loreto	Arequipa Moquegua

Ucayali Callao	Puno San Martín Tacna
-------------------	-----------------------------	--

- The use of a mask is mandatory throughout the country, as well as the use of double masks in closed places, such as airports, shopping centers, banks, supermarkets, among others.
- The population is reminded of constant hand washing, avoiding crowds and maintaining social distance.

If you have any questions, contact the iPerú service of PROMPERU:

iperu@promperu.gob.pe / iperulimaapto@promperu.gob.pe

Lima, August 9, 2021.

PROMPERU