

Dear traveler, HEALTH COMES FIRST

The Peruvian Government has taken the following measures to fight COVID-19:

- All travelers entering the country must:
  - Complete an affidavit (link)
  - Show before boarding the plane a negative PCR test issued up to 72 hours before boarding.
- According to the indications of the Ministry of Health, showing a vaccination card against COVID-19 is not a mandatory requirement to enter Peru.
- The entry of non-resident passengers from South Africa or who have made a stopover in said country in the last 14 days is suspended until October 31.
- Quarantine time is canceled for travelers entering the country with the exception of Peruvians and foreign residents from South Africa or who have made a stopover in said country, who must carry out a mandatory quarantine at their home, accommodation or other temporary isolation center for 14 days counting from the day of arrival in Peru.
- The use of a face shield is no longer required to board national or international flights.
- Moderate alert level: Curfew hours are from 02:00 to 04:00 of the next day.
