Our company VERTIKAL S.A. is creating alternative routes to the classic touristic attractions and considered by most to be the best alternative adventure tour operator.

Such as we mention the RUTA VERTIKAL where this incredible trail is perfect for adventurers who wish to become personally integrated in changing ecosystems from one day to the next. You will pass through sweeping, magical landscapes of a snowy mountain paradise to a tropical jungle where you will find a wide range of animals and medicinal plants and flower varieties. Witness with your own eyes a living, but ancient, culture in remote villages hardly ever seen by foreigners!

The Cordillera Vilcabamba is an impressive mountain range extending over 260 km to the south of Peru second largest after el Huascarán. The snow-capped mountain Salkantay rises to 6271 MASL in height. And the Ausangate mountain rises to 6320masl. They are outstanding snowy peaks, located between the highlands and jungle region of Cusco, both of them keep amazing hidden sceneries such as machupicchu citadel and the rainbow mountain.

TOURS 6DAYS/6NIGHTS 2019

DAY 01: CITY TOUR CUSCO

ITINERARY

Reception in the airport or bus terminal and transfer to the hotel selected. Later you will be picked up from your hotel in Cusco at 13:20 - 13:50hrs to begin your City Tour. First, we will visit the main Cathedral in the Plaza de Armas where you will have the opportunity to see a wide range of paintings from Cusco's School of Art, old writings, and works in gold leaf and embossed silver. Once finished, you will continue on to Koricancha or the "Temple of the Sun" to appreciate its architecture and perfect stone constructions only seen in Inca temples of high importance. Continuing on, we will head outside the city to visit the archaeological circuit of 4 sites: Sacsayhuaman, Q'enqo, Puca Pucara, and Tambomachay. At Sacsayhuaman, you will see its famous stones all carefully carved and enormous in size. At Q'enqo, you will learn some more about this archaeological site's religious importance in the Inca times. At Puca Pucara, you will see an ancient military construction, part of Cusco's ancient defense system. Lastly, at Tambomachay, you will see a temple dedicated to the Water Cult with fountains that still work in today. Your return to Cusco will be at approximately 18:30hrs

DAY 02: SACRED VALLEY OF THE INCAS

ITINERARY

We will pick you up from your hotel in Cusco at 6:00am. And from here, we will take a private bus to all our attractions of today.

On our way about 30 minutes from Cusco we will make our first stop at the colonial town of Chinchero, place where you will appreciate the essence of weaving by hands all patrons about Andean ideologies, the method used to dye natural colors onto cotton. Fantastic visit of the ancient workshop alive. Farther down is the salt mines of Maras which is amazing by the more of 4 thousand pools made by hand to extract salt from liquid state coming out of a natural spring under the mountains of the sacred valley.

Close to Maras is Moray and at the moment this complex is known as the biggest agricultural center or laboratory for experimenting new varieties of food. Moray has 03 centers and the largest has over 160mts high from bottom terrace to the surface. After exploring Moray, we will drive towards Urubamba for lunch after we are stopping in Ollantaytambo town. Amazing and extensive archaeological site with its royal baths, high terraces, temples, etc. surrounded by towering mountain peaks and colorful valley. This town by far is the most preserved layout of a typical, Inca built city with its narrow, cobbled streets and stone walls. Its conservation allows for the enduring legacy of the Inca people.

In the end, we will stay the night in this charming colonial town.
